The Best! The Very Best!!

ANY PERSONS WHO HAVE tried the articles for sale by others, and been aspeciated in their expectations, have decidedly asseried that J. Cristadoro's Excelsion Liquid Hair-Dye is not only the best preparation for dyeing the hair, but that the steers which have been so greatly lauded bear no comparison whateverto his.

J. Cristadoro's Excelsion Liquid Hair-Dye will invariably perform what it promises, which two other Dyes will do. The black it produces in n to dead, slittering color, but beautiful and hielist; the lirown and ambain assemitate so nearly with the colors of nature that it is impossible to detect the presence of a Dye.

Origin of Know-Nothingism Know Nothingiem, as we have often observed is not the natural product of American institu tions; especially that feature that is directed against Catholics. S mo years ago, a hand-bill was published in this city, by a committee of five Germans, whose names follow a presmble, and precede a statement of their principles and chjects The document is full of notions, crude, extravagaut, a d impracticable. It is just such a doen ment as we might expect from its source. It authors were imbued with the enthusiasm of revolution that then prevailed in Europe, and which ended in despotism; men great on theories of freedom, with little wisdem as to the means to secure it. They would have a popular despotism to be free, and force men to enjoy liberty according to the notions of these revelutionists. We give the views of these men on the subject of religion as a part of their platform, and lavite the soif-styled American party to read it, and see where they derived their notions of religious liberty. These Germans had seen Sam. They had brought him along with them from the r fatherland, to be set up as an idol in the country of their years, these Germans would have found so many disciples in this country? About the time this circular was issued, Father Gavazzi was lecturing to admiring crowds in the same strain; assuming to counsel Americans to fersake the old paths their fathers trod, and engage in a vile sectarian crusate in political affairs. We didn't even notice this document at the time, regarding it as one of the specimens of importance and crudeness, that had better be left to its own nothingness than to

We have becatofore given a full history of illiard Fillmore's political eareer, up to the time of his nemination for the Vice Presidency. The record preves, beyond contradiction, that up to hat time be voted in Congress with Giddings, Slade, Hale, and tere, in favor of every measure lesigned to fester the views and designs of antielavery agitation, in their crusade sgainst Sonthern rights and Interests. His Southern friends attempt o parry the effect of these votes, by pretending that he was only maintaining the abstract right of petition; and that his votes furnish no proof of is affiliation with those frantic Abolitionists we bave mentioned. Will they venture to say this to the Erie County Anti-Slavery Committee, dated Buffalo, October 17th, 1838. In this letter he says he " is opposed to the annexation of TEXAS TO THIS UNION, UNI ER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, so LONG AS SLAVES ARE HELD THEREIN." That he is "IN FAVOR OF CONGRESS EXERCISING ALL

IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA." These sentiments, deliberately expressed in reply to a letter from a committee of an anti-slavery organization, identify him, beyond all dispute or cavil, with that fanatical Northern party, then powerless for mischief, but nurthred in its infancy by such men as Fillmore, has since grown into fearful proportions, and now threatens to trample in the dast all the constituted gnarantees which were designed to protect the interests of the slave States, and thereby render a resort to extreme measures as the only redress for intolerable griev-

DIATE LEGISLATION FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY

Such are the patriotic services rendered by Millard Fillmore, during his career in Congress, as shown b, the record of his votes heretofore published. And how does he stand now? The sole ground on which his friends rest his claims to Sonthern en port, is his action as President on the ompremise measures of 1850; he was loadly up plauded for his course on that cosseion, because his whole previous political life had cansed great apprehensions of another result.

Now hear what Fillmore himself has said of hi course at that time, in this year of our Lord, 1856. On his late journey from New York to Buffale, he addressed the people at Newburgh, and said:

"You all know when I was called to the Executive Chair in a becayement which overwhelmed the nation with grief, that the country was unfortunately agitated from the end to the other upon the all exciting subject of stavety. It was then that I was compelled, to a certain extent, to overcome long cheriched projudices and disregard party claims."

Read this parag aph carefully, and it must be een that his sanction of these measures was given with extreme reluctance, and from no settled con viction of their intrinsic justice. It is clear that to this very time he is an alien in heart from everything that concerns the vital interests of the South. He apologizes to his anti-slavery friends at Newburgh. He says he was "compelled, to a certain extent, to overcome long cherished prejudices, and disregard party claims." The party here referred to, is the one represented by the Erie anti-glavery committee. It can be no other. Does this look like a hearty recognition of the constitutional rights of our Southern citizens, and he raid, and he therefore answered himself com a stern determination to stand by them in the future? The danger is too imminent, and the future? The danger is too imminent, and the pression upon no sensible man.

The Know-Nothings have their candidates nomit nated for all the effices to be filed, from Chancellor down. The Democrats have made no nominations, and will not go into any contest as a party. There are soveral independent candidates, however, who are not of the Know-Nothing order. Their names will be found in onr columns. They are gentlemen of high character, and of acknowledged competency. So the voters of Louisville can have the opportunity of at least voting for men for these offices not bound by any secret oaths or obligations, and we hope they will not fail to imtutions and rituals of the Know-Nothing party are

DANVILLE, KY., July, 22, 1856. Messrs, Epitons: The talented and accomplished Col. John W. Stevenson addressed the citizens of this place, on yesterday (Monday) evening. The conrt-house was crowded to excess, and all anxious to hear the crater. Immense crowds followed him from Perryville and Harrodsburg, where he had previously spoken. The Know-Nothings were more curious to hear him than the Democrate. The fairness and mild gentlemanly manner in in which he treated the topics of the day, contrast so favorably with the bullyragging, brass-knuck siyle of Reger Hanson, that after they entered the conseit was impossible for them to leave. Col. S. wounded the feelings of no one, and uttered nothing barsh or repulsive. His whole speech was honest, dignified, and candid, being composed of facts and arguments, and not the cant and trash of some of the Know-Nothing orators - such as THE CONSTITUTIONAL POWER IT POSSESSES, TO ABOLISH THE INTERNAL SLAVE TRADE BETWEEN down with the furriners, and "Americans must rule America." While the Know-Nothing speakers are abusing Buchanan, and endeavoring to divide and distract the South, and throw the election into the House of Representatives, Col. Stevenson enlogized Mr. Fillmore's conrec while President, and exerted them to examine and find ont who was the strong est man, and vote as a unit for him to defeat Fre mont and his Abolition hordes. Everywhere all over the country, you can find Democrate making the same remark, but you cannot get a Know-Nothing to open his mouth on the subject. I understand that several Know-Nothings of this place have expressed themselves favorably to any ominee to beat Buchanan. Thank God we have no such men in the ranks of the Democ-

But the Colonel was not quite so casy with the rephew of my uncle. He handled Audrew J. Don-cleon without gloves. He gave him a severe and righty merited castigation. Ho exhibited him in his trne colors as a paltry trickster and office ceker, and when he explained his connection with bargain, sale, and corruption," many opened their eyes and saw the dilemma they were in when they refused to vote for Buchanan, because they might think him the author of tout charge. Of this in amous chargo Col. S. complotely and satisfactori ly cloared Mr. Buchanan.

Upon all points of controversy Col. S. was able. clear, and logical, proving that the Democracy wes the only national party, the only one that could hope for success, and that it was madness and sui-cidal in the friends of Mr. Fillmore to retain him on the track longer, and that by so doing they were endangering the whole Union, and giving efficient aid to Fremont. He elesed up with a beautiful appeal to patriots to stand by the constitution and not give it up to Abelition tanati-icism, and he exported the Democracy to stand by their colors, and victory would surely perch on heir standard.

Col. S. has made himself many friends in this section of the State, and if he eucceeds as well elsewhere as he has here, the State is sure for Buchanau and Breckinridge. The Democracy are delighted with bim, and the Know-Nothings dare not say anght against hlm. He is a host, and his speeches will make a wonderful stampede among our Know-Nothing "brethren."

After Col. S. concluded, Mr. Worthington, Louisville, was called on. He arose and said hedid not intend to reply to Mr. Stevenson, but that he oan party." The real Old-Line Democrate are still reliable, and their numbers are continually increasing. Hundreds, and even thousands of Old-Line National Whigs have ined us, and are laboring with us. Many who have voted against us in other days, are now aiding the Democracy with a good will and a free heart. WHAT THE GREAT PYRAMID OF EGYPT COST. The Caker I TYRAMID OF LOYFT COST.— An English architect, Mr. Tito, has been "figuring up" the cost of the great Pyramid near Gize. Its original dimensione, at the base, he cays, were 64,000 square feet, and it had a perpendicular eight of 480 feet, covering 43 acres, 1 rood, an 2 perches of ground. It consumed 89,028,000 nbic feet of stone; and Mr. Tite adds, that it ould not now be built for less than thirty mi one storling. The joints of the large casin locks of granite were so fine as to be scarcely per ors sterling. eptible, not thicker than paper; and the mort ras so athesive that the stones in some case roke through their sa stance rather than give way at their joining. The cost, therefore, of this structure, reduced to federal currency, was $145,200,000—a sum large enough to build and put in running order six good substantial railloads between New York on the Atlantic and San Francisco on the Pacific. The Col. is a sterling Democrat, and an elequent Further confirmation of the story drove bim almost to madness, and believing the story true, he returned the young lady her letters and love tokens. Ignorant of the mother's artifices in producing this basty act, she attributed it to other causes, and died soon after of a broken heart. The sequel, so goes the romance, was that the then ising lawyer and future statesman never sought another love. But the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian thus rudely spoils the romance:

We have read the story as copied by the editors of the Post from Harper's Magazine, and we as-ure them that it is the grossest and most base-less fabrication. CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, July 24. SENATE -The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the bill to anthorize the rotection of citizens of the United States who may discover derosits of guano. The bill provides that whenever any citizen of the United States shall discover a new Guano Island, etc., not occupied by persons of any other thousands, and scompy the same, shall be considered appertaining to the United State, and allowed the exclusive right of selling and delivering the guano, and receive eight d liars when de-livered at the vestel, and four at the place of deposit of the guano—only for citizens of the United States—a breach of the privilege to work a for-feiture of their right. Mr. Stephens did not think Congress had th power to control the President in the manner pro-posed. The President being Commander-in-Chief of the Amarican army, they could not im-pose conditions on the Legislature nothing having been disclosed to the contrary. It was legal and its laws must be enforced notil abolished chan and by the proper antherities. not the people of Kansas formed these laws. It was unrepation not to be permitted in a Republicon government, a despotism never before know Ho was willing the army should be withdrawn, and not disperse persons perceably assembling or arrest them on the mere allegation of offense CARPETING, RUGS, MATS, FLOOR AND TA-BLE OILCLOTHS, CURTAIN GOODS

Mr. Whitfield for once in his life agreed with Mr. Giddings, that the army should be withdrawn. Hefera long time had been anxious for this, and would not give a farthing for a law which could not be sustained by the people. He denied the ight of Congress to repeal the laws of Kansas. ne Supreme Court of the United States was o proper tribunal to pronounce upon their illo-lity. But for the inflamatory steeches made here by Northern men, Kansas would now be as niet as any part of the country. ace, as charged, were not responsible for the dis inrbarces.

Mr Savage said it was the duty of the Presiden to enforce the laws and suppress all insurrection; heree the propriety of keeping the military forces in Kunses for the preservation of peace. He characterized the object of the amendment to be to seize the power which Corgress had no right to exercise, and a part of the game was to obstruct the observation of the laws. Mr. Sherman said when no was in Westport, he prevented from traveling over she highways b Missourians, and excluded from the territory. Ma Whitfield started from Westcort, he saw hi In answer to a question by Mr. Whitfield, he said Whitfield informed himst that time that he was going over for peaceful purpless, lo prevent fightritory involved in a condition of discord and civit as a Southern and national man, it was not his object in voting for the Missouri restriction to make Kangas a slave State. He wished the people to settle their own institutions.

Mr. Craige made a similar arowal. Mr. Quitman, lu condemning the amendmen did not believe these who spoke in favor of it. w nid dare usurp power not granted by the Con-sciution, by assuming the functions of a judiciary and deprive the President of the duty imposed on him by that instrument. Mr. Wakeman contended that Congress can re-
